February - Join Us for a Month of Fun

Greetings our Flashback Friends,

Let me start by acknowledging some months I get all nostalgic and write about life and current events. Other months well, I just get down to the basics. Feedback over the years indicate the majority of you love reading the Newsletters, however, there are a few of you so say 'just the facts, please.' Well, fair warning, I'm in a writing mood this month, so those who want the schedule, skip on over to page 3. For the rest of you, happy reading!

SCHEDULE ON PAGE 3

Awe, February, the month of romance and love! Flowers, chocolate, nice dinners, perhaps an exquisite bottle of wine, jewelry are all nice too LOL! The two of us for 24 years have indulged in all of the above, not just on special occasions, but for 'just because'.

However, the only thing that really matters for us, is having each other. I know, some of you are thinking, "Oh please" and perhaps making gaging noises. But, as corny as this may sound, it rings true for us.

Sonny and I feel we both have been appreciative people our whole lives. When we met, fell in-love and discovered we had found our soulmate, we felt extra blessed and appreciate the immense love we found.

Most of you have heard this, but for those who haven't... We were so excited to be planning our life together when one month prior to moving to Florida, Sonny was in a near fatal accident which changed EVERYTHING forever! This accident made us even more appreciative of each other and life and although life for us has been a tremendous struggle at times, we are so grateful.

Seven years ago, a fellow musician friend of ours, lost his bride. The two of them, like us, shared a 'special' love for one another. He wrote to us...

"I wish you both the best life has to offer. Hug each other extra tight & don't take a minute of life for granted."

In listening to our friend, we HAVE been hugging each other extra tight each year. GREAT ADVISE!

Until next newsletter...musically yours, S & S

EACH YEAR ON OUR BIRTHDAY'S...

when the realization of "Wow, we are getting OLDER" smacks us in the face, we become aware none of us know how much more time we have left on this earth,. Sonny and I spend each day like it is our last and I am blessed to have such a wonderful and romantic husband who makes EVERY day feel like Valentine's Day (which is a good thing since we work the Holiday each year!)

Soul mates We recently celebrated our 24th year together.
